

'Round the Riviera

By MARY WEBB
FRONTIER 5-3051

Mary Woodson, publicity chairman for the Hampton Players, reports the cast for their new play, "Guest in the House" is pretty well lined up. The part of the guest will be played by Jane Lafferty of Torrance. Bruce Strachan, of the Palos Verdes Apartments in Riviera, plays the part of Dr. Proctor. Aunt Martha Proctor will be portrayed by Neva Boyer of 202 Via Alameda, while Dorothy Tunis of 412 Via Pasqual, will be the reporter, Claude Ferrel of 724 Calle de Arboles, plays Rev. Doctor Shaw.

Mrs. Nora Quarrie of Via Colusa is dramatics teacher for children by trade and is teaching the two little girls cast for the play.

Curtain time will be 8:30 p. m., August 22 and 23, at the Redondo Union High School auditorium and admission will be $1 including tax. Tickets may be purchased or reserved by calling Mrs. Arlis Wyatt, 309 Calle de Andaluca, FR 5-3619 or Mrs. Claude Ferrel, 724 Calle de Arboles, FR 5-2371.

Did you know we held an "Olympics" in El Retiro park last week? Well, so it was the "Junior Olympics" it was still important to Riviera. And if you didn't know about it, it can only be because you have no children (especially boys) between the ages of seven and sixteen. From the reports, every such child was at El Retiro last Monday, Wednesday and Friday competing for the championship.

Under the sponsorship of the Torrance Recreation Commission Riviera's El Retiro faced McMaster Park and Wallerica Park in the giant event. And strike us silly if El Retiro didn't up and win the championship. During the three days of broad-jumps, sprints, skipping races and crab races, our local Riviera talent walked off with well over 150 points.

The winners played hosts to the losers last Monday when a celebratory watermelon feed was held at El Retiro park.

Funeral services were held last week in Inglewood for Ira Douglass of 156 Via Ciruela. Services were conducted by Rev. Hubert Davison at Pierce Bros. in Inglewood with burial in Inglewood Cemetery.

Ira was a supervisor at Douglas Aircraft and had lived in the south bay area for over 20 years. He was the victim of a heart attack.

Survivors include wife Ruth; daughter and son, Lenora and Gerald; brother Allan F. Douglass and five sisters, Effie, Edna, Ella, Edith and Loretta.

Here's a reminder: if you've changed your address, your name, or political party, if you've become of age, or are a new California resident, or if you didn't vote in either the June or November elections in 1950 (for shame!), then you had better register to vote by September 11. This is the presidential election year — be sure you're registered.

Frank Smith, husband of Barbara Smith, 150 Calle de Andaluca, left last weekend for a business trip back east. He will be gone one week, tending to his chores as western representative for a large silver company.

The Smiths are now residents of Riviera, having moved here from New England just a couple of months ago.

Young Clark Kearns, 204 Calle de Andaluca, found out just what planes, even small ones, aren't something to be trifled with. One of his proudest possessions has been a toy jet airplane such as you see displayed on the toy counters of the local stores. It in last week, while flying in front of his home, the jets jetted just a bit too much. Result: Clark is in bed suffering from a burn on his leg.

LT. Comdr. Satterwhite and wife Judy of Via los Altos are in the midst of improving their home. They have added mahogany paneling to their den and a custom built bar.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Yoder, 27 Vista del Parque, are enjoying a visit from her mother, who is here from the east.

A flash report from Riviera Evelyn Lundstrom advised me last week that we had quite a beta horn in the neighborhood, rushing to gather pencils and papers. I set about to scoop the world. But it turns out that the five new Rivierans are all cocker spaniels, who arrived Friday last at the Paul Chesters, 500 Calle de Arboles. Mrs. Chesters assisted with the ushering ceremonies, since Paul is away on a business trip. Two blacks and three blonds was the count and color, but since their births, one passed away, leaving an even match in coloring. Mother cocker (name of Rumba) is doing just fine.
